The basic concept of pointbreak is pyramiding and averaging. Pyramiding means it adds position according to flow of the trend and averaging means it capture profit when price againts the trend in the short term.

While the basic concept is simple... the core logic of pointbreak is mathematical edge, it capture profits whenever market direction goes !

Let's review some of the fact i found within this 5 month

1. When it set to fully automated trading... it creates profit !

Lin has started a forward test , fully automated trading from 4 December 2007, starts with $25.000. you could take a look from the investor password in the demo account:

Account#: 1745192.

Password: lucky7

Platform: InterbankFX Demo Account

Now at this time of writing, the account has up to $31.859 !! with only concervative setting !

2. When understand the logic, you can combine with your manual trading to create more profits... a whole lot MORE !

it took me 3 months, supporting lin and fxhope, through lots of hours, i finally can combine pointbreak with my own trading style to boost my profit in REAL account.

Here's the recap..

Until March 29th 2008, my account up to 10% through fully automatic mode. I've been through a big drawdown in february when my floating lost reach up to 30% of my trading account, at that time i remain stay calm... and i'm very pleased when i found pointbreak really can get out from hard situation.

The exciting begins In April...until now !

however, i finally found the true power of pointbreak by learning of what its doing. If you visit my trading blog in veecology.com , you'll see that i have invented a new monitoring EA called Elite User. I will release this concept to public in anytime soon, make sure you got pointbreak from pointbreak-system.com , and receive my EA for free ! and we could start trading as consesus (isn't great when you're not trading alone). With Elite User, i finally can up my profit in REAL Account to 50%....

50% within 5 months.... a great pleasure things !

Here's what i love about make profit with pointbreak :

1. Fully Automatic.. Profits !
2. Combine with manual... MORE Profits !
3. Focused only on one pair : EURUSD !
4. Created and use by a Real Trader
5. Very Simple in conjunction with my Pointbreak Elite User EA... just needs to determine to fill BUY/SELL Power !

so my final conclusion: "A MUST HAVE !". Learning pointbreak is not a hard thing.. many people can't get benefit from this EA because they do MSP too much without great understanding about what pointbreak do. But i'll guarantee you... when you master it, you'll see forex trading in new simple prespective.

Happy Trading
